Xulon Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Why another gospel printed rendition you may ask? It has been my personal experience as a Christian that some of the basic details of the gospel of grace are not always taught and explained clearly at the beginning of a Christian believer's life/birth. Some details of the gospel of grace are typically left to being learned over time and not provided up front with clear emphasis. (See Acts 18:27 YLT - Young's Living Translation. Believers are described as, have believed through the grace, implies that the gospel and grace may be interchanged as one and the same.) This writing attempts to clarify and bring together clear details of the Christian gospel of grace more concisely and completely than is found in the typical presentation of the gospel. In it, I attempt to include with some clarity, some key issues such as the Trinity, creation, sin, old and new covenants, Jesus payment and the fullness and completeness of it, and the Holy Spirit's role in the life of a Christian - to name a few. This book contains two major sections. The first section presents the gospel and the second section attempts to provide concrete Biblical support for what has been stated in the gospel presentation. It is designed for two distinct audiences. First it can be used to share the Christian gospel with the lost person and provide an excellent foundation based on the Bible for Christian belief and growth if the lost person chooses to believe in Jesus. Second, it can be used for virtually any age believer as a discussion medium to promote a thorough foundational understanding of what and why Christians believe what they believe in various...
